Who are the Friends?

The Friends of the Richton Park Library is a non-profit organization of wonderful volunteers who help promote, support, and enhance the use of the library by sponsoring programs and providing necessary materials and furnishings for community cultural enrichment.

Do I have time?

Of course you have time! Responsible and concerned citizens (like you) make time to enhance and support their community.

The Friends meet at 7:00 p.m. on the second Tuesday of the every month at the Richton Park Public Library District.

Refreshments are provided! You just bring a positive attitude, motivation and great ideas!

How can I help?
